SEVEN & SEVEN

TRUE ORIGINALS

- VESPER MARTINI 14
One Martini is not enough, two is not too many, three and you are almost there ... But just a moment..
Three measures of Gin, one of Vodka and half measure of Kina Lillet.
- PERFECT MANHATAN 15
One of the most historical Cocktail which born in Manhattan Club, New York, early in 1870, in honor of presidential candidate Samuel J. Tilden. Classic Combination with American Whisky, Italian and French Vermouth and also Angostura Bitters.
- DAIQUIRI LA FLORIDITA 15
It opened in 1817 in the place it still occupies, on the corner of Obispo and Mon serrate streets. Almost 100 years later, the large number of North American tourists persuaded the owner to change the name to "El Florida", but with the time it became popularly known as "El Floridita".
- MARGARITA 14
In the 1937 Café Royal Cocktail Book author William J. Tarling describes cocktail... Picador, which is a British predecessor of Margarita. The recipe for Picador had the same proportions that are currently acknowledged as margarita is a British invention!! However, Sara Morales, an expert on Mexican Folklore, traces back the creation of this drink to the owner of Bertha's Bar in Taxco in Mexico and dates it for 1930.
- RUM OLD FASHIONED 16
Love cocktails with rum but feel limited by the options?
An Old Fashioned recipe made with rum instead of bourbon will do the trick. Brad Farran of Brooklyn's cocktail-crazed hot spot The Clover Club made this exquisitely balanced Rum Old Fashioned
- NEGRONI 16
The Negroni is also one of the few cocktails with a traceable history that goes all the way back to the early 20th century. Its origins are documented in the book Sulle Tracce del Conte: La Vera Storia del Cocktail Negroni, which was written by Lucca Picchi, head bartender at Caffè Rivoire in Florence, Italy.
The drink was created at Bar Casoni in Florence.
- ORIGINAL COSMO 15
For those who prefer something alternative but classic.... This recipe combines classic characteristics from Kamikaze, and cranberry juice.
